Darling Helen, I was greatly relieved today by your letter just as I was about to telegraph for news.

You should have a servant to attend you all the time get one at any cost and I'll gladly pay her wages.
This will be a great relief & pleasure to me.

Let me know when you want anything. You have not yet acknowledged receipt of another large box of muscats with a bunch of flowers in a corner of it. Shipped a day or two before the Goldberg stuff Oct. 15. Don't know the name of your dream wife unless you mean Hitch Hitchy. Am fairly well Devotedly Your Father J. M.
